The Scott County Public Schools Policy Manual and Student Handbook/Code of Conduct have been revised in accordance with the most recent legislative action and school division needs and will be posted to the website once they are approved by the school board.