Scott County Schools

Memo

TO: School Board Members

FROM: John I. Ferguson, Superintendent

RE: Discussion of March 28 Workday

March 28th will serve as a make-up day for the January 23rd date the students missed due to inclement weather. The teachers will not be required to make up their professional development time which was scheduled for that date as long as they are present for the entire day of school.